$60,000 in Community Grants

Mayor Jo-Anne Quigley (third from left) presented certificates to Council's grant recipients at the March Council meeting. Seven local groups will share in $60,000 as part of Council's Community Project Grants and Community Halls Support Program. Pictured are Glyn Owen (Marble Range Community & Sports Centre), Cathy and Ivy Haarsma (Cummins Area School Chaplaincy Group), Peter Blacker (Coffin Bay Yacht Club), Annette Bould (Point Boston Community Corporation), Lindy Brook (Yeelanna Memorial Association) and Kerry Casanova (Big Swamp Community Centre).

PLAYGROUND IMPROVEMENTS

The Cummins Railway Triangle playground has been upgraded and had softfall installed, and Coffin Bay's Stan Morgan Reserve playground has been upgraded and had shade sails installed. The playgrounds at Dorward Reserve, North Shields, and Lions Park, Boston have also had shade sails installed.

Learn to be emergency prepared in Coffin Bay

Get along to the Coffin Bay foreshore from 12pm-2pm this Saturday, March 25 for a Coffin Bay community emergency preparedness barbecue. Learn how to be emergency ready, prepare for extreme weather, fire and storms, and about community preparedness and recovery. This is the second event this year, and Lower Eyre Council is proud to partner with the Australian Red Cross, Country Fire Service, National Emergency Management Agency and the State Emergency Service.

AUSTRALIA DAY AWARD RECIPIENTS RECOGNISED

SELF-DRIVE ITINERARIES

Council has developed two new self-drive itineraries. Be spoilt for choice with sandy beaches, rugged coast lines or secluded coves using the Coast-to-Coast adventure trail or indulge your tastebuds with the variety of flavours Lower Eyre has to offer with the Paddock-to-Plate itinerary.
