Health Focus Group

Interested community members are invited to join the Cummins & District Health Focus Group. The group aims to:

- Maintain and enhance the level of current health services – GP, Allied Health, primary health care, home support and residential aged care.
- Ensure an achievable doctor succession plan.
- Create a focus for Cummins within the health industry.
- Ensure strong partnerships between government and private agencies, and community organisations.

The new group is a subgroup of the Lower Eyre Health Advisory Council and subcommittee of the Cummins & District Enterprise Committee. For more information call Liz Mickan on 0428 372 436.

KIDS Foundation camp

The Kids Foundation will hold a Camp TANGO (Together Achieving New Goals and Opportunities) at Mylor Adventure Camp from June 17-19 for children, adolescents and young adults who have experienced severe burns or other life-changing injury and trauma aged 6-16 and 17-23 years.
