

MEDIA RELEASE

18 April 2024

Resignation of Councillor Margaret Fahy

Councillor Margaret Fahy has regrettably advised Council she is no longer able to continue her role as an Elected Member for the Lower Eyre Community due to work commitments.

Mayor Jo-Anne Quigley thanked Councillor Fahy for her contribution to the Council and the Lower Eyre Community, and noted Cr Fahy's passion and dedication towards improving our community was greatly appreciated by all. On behalf of all the Elected Members and Council Staff, we wish Margie all the very best with her future endeavours.

As there is now a vacancy as Councillor, a supplementary election will be held to elect a new member to join the Lower Eyre Council by the Electoral Commission of South Australia.

Key dates relating to the election can be found on Council's website and below.
