Cummins & District War Memorial Swimming Pool: A Community Effort for Redevelopment

As the last rays of summer sun gently fade away, we bid adieu to another season at the Cummins & District War Memorial Swimming Pool. It's been a season filled with laughter, splashes, and memories, but as we prepare to close our doors for the winter, we reflect on the journey we've taken together and what the future holds for us.

Friday, March 22nd, marks the final public swimming day for the season. However, for those keen on a few more laps, fear not! Lap swimming will continue until Good Friday, offering a chance for some final strokes..

As we close the pool gates, it's essential to extend our deepest gratitude to the individuals who have made this season possible. First and foremost, a heartfelt thank you to our dedicated pool operator, Peter Hamilton, whose tireless efforts have kept our pool running smoothly throughout the summer months. We also owe a debt of gratitude to our vigilant Pool Lifeguards - Sharni Blacker, Jade Blacker, Bree Shepperd, William Turner, and Max Pedler. Their commitment to safety ensured that every visitor enjoyed their time at the pool with peace of mind.

But our appreciation doesn't end there. The support of our community has been nothing short of phenomenal. From fundraising events to working bees, and lending a helping hand wherever needed, Cummins and its surrounding districts have rallied together to support our pool.

A special acknowledgment goes to Mick Howell, whose determination and generosity has driven the equipment shed project. It's through the efforts of individuals like Mick that we see our community projects take shape, ensuring our facilities are fit for purpose.

Looking ahead, the Redevelopment Steering Group is diligently working with Hydrilla to finalize costings, plans, and timelines for the redevelopment of our beloved swimming pool precinct. While significant progress has been made in accumulating funding, there remains a shortfall of approximately $450,000. The reality is that our aging pool has struggled to keep up this season, and the Committee believes it may not be operational for the 2024-2025 season, even if the redevelopment hasn't commenced. This underscores the urgency of our situation, and we need your help.

We are delighted to announce a staggering donation by WG Fuss & Sons towards our redevelopment of $50,000.00!!!! We are inspired by this amazingly generous gift to our community and thank the Fuss family for their ongoing support.

We urge you to keep an eye out for information regarding business sponsorship, private donations, fundraising events, and other opportunities to support this critical project. Together, we can ensure that future generations can enjoy the benefits of a safe, modern swimming facility right here in our community. As we close this chapter of the swimming season, let's embrace the spirit of community and work together to make the Cummins & District War Memorial Swimming Pool redevelopment a reality. Thank you for your continued support and dedication.

World Day of Prayer Service

The Cummins Catholic church hosted the 2024 World Day of Prayer Service on Friday 1 March at 10am, which had been prepared by women from Palestine, with the theme "I beg you....bear with one another in love"

Marg Phelps led the service, ably supported by other ladies from St Andrews Parish, in particular, Josie Hammond who organised the overheads and the music for the day.

Diane Secker read the Bible verse taken from Paul's letter to the Ephesians, chapter 4 verses 1-5.

Three stories from Palestine women, Eleonor, Lina, & Sara was read out by Gladys Hall, (Anglican); Elaine Jericho, (Lutheran) and Christine Kelly (Uniting Church).

The intercessory prayers were read by Janette Haarsma for women everywhere, for the world and those in need and also refugees and the sick. The 2024 Bible Society Australia WDP project "Living Stones" film was shown.

This project offers a centre for Bible engagement and Christian community-building in Palestine – encouraging women, students and families with God's word and inspiring them to be true "salt and light" in troubled times. An offering was taken up and $355 will be sent to the World Day of Prayer SA/NT committee to support this project.

Fr John Folkman gave the prayer of thanksgiving before the Lutheran representatives were called upon to be commissioned for hosting the WD of P in 2025.

The Lord's Prayer followed by a closing hymn and words of commitment and blessing ended the service. Beryl Taylor was acknowledged for her efforts over the years she was involved in WD of P services, and wished well in her future "retirement from active duty".

Everyone adjourned to the hall for a cuppa, refreshments and continued friendship.

Get to know our Scholarship Recipients

Kylie Shepperd

Kylie received a $5,000 Scholarship as part of our Community Upskill Program for her study of a Diploma of Early Childhood Education & Care

I would like to say a big thank you to the Community Bank - Cummins District for the amazing Community Upskill Scholarship that I was very fortunate to receive.

It has helped me immensely with the purchase of study equipment, including a much-needed upgrade of a new laptop (something I'm using almost on a daily basis for my studies), stationery and course materials. It will also help with travel costs to TAFE for training over the upcoming 2 years of the course.

I am very grateful to have been chosen as a recipient, I will continue to serve the community by taking care of the little people of our district. They are our future!

Bendigo Bank

Holly Gale

Holly received a $5,000 Scholarship as part of our School Leaver Program for her study of a Bachelor's Degree in Human Movement & Business (Sports and Recreation Management)

This scholarship has helped me immensely with my move to Adelaide and the start of my University journey. I chose to stay at St Marks residential college, and majority of the scholarship has been put towards my accomodation for this year, and a small portion will go towards a new laptop for my studies.

I am extremely grateful for the opportunity to move out of home and continue my educational journey, which likely would not have been possible without the generosity of Bendigo bank and their benevolent contribution towards my future!

I moved here to Cummins from Adelaide in February of 2014 after wanting to move here since I was 17 years old. I've always found Cummins to be a very connected space, much more than where I lived in the Adelaide Hills, or even Port Lincoln where I grew up. I felt Cummins had a brilliant sense of community and that's what attracted me here.

Prior to living here, I was born and raised in Port Lincoln and am the eldest of 3 siblings. I have 2 younger brothers, Kris and Ryan. When I was 2.5 years old, my youngest sibling, Ryan contracted encephalitis (fluid on the brain) when he was only 18 months, and this led to him having permanent brain damage and learning difficulties. Our dad was a lobster fisherman, and he wasn't home for much of the year, back then the cray season tended to go nearly 10 months of the year, so I had to help mum a lot. This is in turn meant I felt an immense amount of pressure to be constantly responsible and grow up quickly.

I enjoyed school and attended Port Lincoln High School. I cruised through well enough and when I was 15, I was lucky enough to be given the opportunity by my parents to participate in the AFS Exchange program. I packed up life as I knew it, and headed to Burlington, Wisconsin, USA for 12 months.

I got over there in the middle of 1998 and in the November of that year, there was an attempted school shooting at the school I was attending. Five male students with grudges against some of the staff and students had plotted to carry out the atrocious act that we're all too familiar with in American schools today. Luckily one the girlfriends of one of the supposed gunmen alerted authorities and they were stopped before getting to the school, but my host brother and I were woken at 6am by my host mom and told that there would be no going to school on this day. This shook me up a bit as I had recently had a heated debate with one of the related students and after they were caught, we were notified that the 3 of them had a list of 3-4 people they wanted to kill. I had hoped that my name was not on that list.

Thankfully they didn't reach the school and the situation did not eventuate. When Mum found out she wanted me to come home straight away, but I was adamant that I wanted to stay and live my year out in Burlington.

In 1999 tragedy did strike and it was completely terrifying. In April, Columbine in Colorado had a school shooting. This was one of the first mass shootings to make international news and one of my good friend's cousins was killed. I remember it so vividly, like it was yesterday.

I came home from school that afternoon, chucked my bag on the ground as most teenagers did, grabbed something to eat and turned on the TV. I was transfixed, watching it all unfold on the news and it was so traumatic. I saw a SWAT team trying to pull a semi-conscious bloody body out of a window. The casualty was Partick Ireland. The SWAT team also helped other causalities and distraught families throughout the school site.

Just being exposed to this gave me some kind of PTSD, I am sure of it. I was nearly 16 and watching this all unfold on tv, and knowing this could have happened to us in our school 5 months earlier was so upsetting. I think because of all of this I'm scared of crowds in small spaces, especially where I don't know anyone, I always like to know where my exits are.

I am so grateful for my overall exchange experience though. I met so many people from all over the world during my stay in America and I am still connected with many of them now.

After I got back to Australia, I had a few jobs after school. I worked at Blockbuster, Woolworths and the local Chiropractor. When I was 19, I went back to America to work as an au pair. I had been there only 6 months when mum rang to let me know of her leukaemia diagnosis.

It cut my 12-month working experience short and I came home straight away. She's been living with chronic myeloid leukaemia for over 20 years now and is, thankfully, still living her best life. In my late 20's, I moved from Lincoln to Adelaide, where I pursued my career as a youth worker with Aboriginal Family Support Services. This was both a fulfilling and challenging career, but when a job opportunity opened in Cummins, I decided to move back to the Eyre Peninsula and to a more rural lifestyle.

For as long as I can remember I have always been creative, and both my grandmas were very creative. I became interested in photography when I was in Adelaide and now, I mix photography with my art and my many travels. I really like portrait photography; because I am passionate about expressing and sharing people's emotions and telling stories.

I also love to travel, and this is also inspired by my family history research and strong desire to find out about my ancestors, and have been extremely lucky to have travelled to places where my ancestors are from.

On my mum's side of the family, my great grandpa emigrated from a Swedish island named Åland (now autonomous, but a part of the Finish kingdom) and he eventually settled in Port Lincoln. I have been fortunate enough to visit this island and my cousins who live there.

I have recently returned from travel around Europe and UK for 2 months which I explored on my own. For some people travelling by yourself may seem daunting but I thoroughly enjoyed it. I drove nearly 6000 miles in 5 weeks throughout the UK and saw a lot of fantastic places, challenging my mental, emotional and physical health as I explored from Cornwall to the Scottish Highlands and Outer Hebrides. I am currently planning my next trip, a walking holiday across Hadrian's Wall.

Putting my physical and mental health first has become a huge priority for me over the past 12 months. There's no time like the present to change the way you do things.

I have recently been training for my waking holiday and have walked from Port Kenny to Venus Bay, Cummins to Edillilie, and Cummins to Yallunda Flat over several weekends.

I also enjoy the Village Arts, here at Our Town in Cummins, once a month and I am part of the Port Lincoln Art Group in Lincoln which I attend weekly. I'm lucky to currently have a piece hanging in the Port Lincoln Art Groups exhibition at the Nautilus Art Gallery.

I am also the current secretary of the Yallunda Flat A & H Society. It's a great committee to be part of. I am in awe of the community's commitment. They put in so much effort into making a great show every year and looking after the grounds.

Growing up in Port Lincoln, and later, Adelaide; at times I can find some of society's attitudes challenging in a small town. People can be so scared of change, and ideas that don't fit into traditional ideals, or beliefs. And while I am not afraid to push back to let people know that some things they say or do are inappropriate, I like to encourage people to find balance with new ideas and be open to things that make this community beautiful and us all different as individuals. It is important to me to acknowledge my privilege and to ally with minorities who sometimes face some of the outdated views held by society.

Introducing Garth, WSB Distributors Parts Interpreter

From Mines to Parts: A Journey with Garth Pentecost.

Before joining WSB, Garth spent 16 years in the mining industry, starting his career in Kalgoorlie, Western Australia. "I worked with explosives, handling everything from manufacture to distribution," Garth explained. "It was a valuable experience, and I eventually worked my way up to a supervisory role." Despite his success, Garth felt the pull of home and he decided to come back to his hometown "I missed the family and the ocean breeze of Port Lincoln," he said.

When asked about his decision to make the switch, Garth explained, "I had been considering a change for some time. Homesickness played a significant role, and when my sister saw the Parts Interpreter position advertised, she knew it would be a perfect fit." With her encouragement, Garth applied, ultimately finding himself at WSB.

Adjusting to a new work-life balance proved challenging for Garth, "In the mines, I worked 12-hour days, with a schedule of 8 days on and 6 days off," he recalled. "Now, I have a more traditional weekend schedule and it took some getting used to." However, Garth notes the upside of more traditional working hours allow him to pursue his hobbies throughout the week as well as the weekend.

Outside of work, Garth's interest lies in the great outdoors, particularly the ocean. "I have a boat, and you can often find me fishing or diving around Coffin Bay and Port Lincoln," he shared. "Camping with family and friends is another favourite pastime, and I always make time for a round of golf whenever I can."

His love for fishing traces back to his upbringing in Port Lincoln. "With its beaches and fantastic fishing spots, it's no wonder it's in my DNA," Garth reflected. "My dad used to take us kids along whenever he could, and that love for the water stuck with me."

Garth shift from the mines to WSB isn't just about a career change; it's about a new opportunity and staying close to what matters—family, friends, and outdoor adventures.

If you have any parts needs, Garth is the man for the job.

He will enjoy a good fishing yarn with you too!
