COMMUNITY

Firey Women

The Country Fire Service will hold two Firey Women workshops in Port Lincoln. People can register for either:

- Two full days on Saturday and Sunday September 18 and 19, or
- Four consecutive nights the following week September 20, 21, 22 and 23 from 6pm.

Learn to understand bushfires and warnings, decide when to leave early or stay and defend, how to operate fire pumps and equipment and how to prepare a Bushfire Survival Plan.

For more information and to register please call Therese Pedler on 0428 114 234.

Census reminder

People can still complete their Census if they missed out on Census Night even if you don't have a census number. Remember that you should complete a census for every property so if you have a holiday home in the Council area, you still need to fill in a very short census for that property to let the ABS know – visit www.census.abs.gov.au to complete the form.

Dementia Australia speaker

Kylie Earl from Dementia Australia will be hosted as a guest speaker by the Cummins Catholic Women's League branch on Friday, October 8. Go along to the Catholic Church, Cummins at 10am for a 10.30am start. Please RSVP to Marg Phelps, Secretary Cms CWL: marg.phelps@bigpond.com
